The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, December 10. 1718.

Paris, December 14.

The following Arrêt has been publiſhed here.

Arrêt of the Court of the Mint, which ordains that thoſe ſhall be inform'd againſt, who ſpread falſe Reports concerning the Coin.

IT having been repreſented to the Court, by the King's Procureur General, that ill-minded People, who ſeek their own private Advantage at the Expence of the State, have ſpread Reports among the Publick, that there will ſpeedily be a conſiderable Diminution made of the Value of the Species newly coined; which Reports having no Foundation, can be invented only by ſuch People, who for augmenting their own Uſuries, have an Intereſt in alarming the Publick, and hinder at the ſame time the bringing of State-Bills to the King's Mint, whereby they have an Opportunity of making Advantage to themſelves, by unjuſt and unlawful ways, to the Prejudice of the Publick, in endeavouring by that Conduct to deſtroy the Execution of the King's Intention ſufficiently declar'd by the Edict of the Month of May laſt; the ſaid Procureur General requir'd, that it being of Importance to put to Silence thoſe falſe Diſcourſes, by puniſhing the Authors of them, he may be permitted to cauſe Informations to be made of the Facts mentioned in his Complaint. And he being retir'd the Matter was put into Deliberation. The Court allowing the Requeſt of the Procureur General, has made moſt expreſs Inhibitions and Prohibitions to all ſorts of Perſons, of whatſoever Quality and Condition they may be, to inſinuate, ſay, or give to underſtand, directly or indirectly, that the Species newly Coined will be diminiſhed, or to ſpread any Report in Publick, or in Private, contrary to what is imported by the Ordonnances; Ordain that, at the Requeſt of the Procureur General, Informations ſhall be taken before M. Charles Mareuil and John Baptiſt Collin, Counſellours, whom the Court have Commiſſioned to that purpoſe, againſt all thoſe who ſhall ſpread Reports, capable of diverting People from bringing their State-Bills to the Mint, and deſtroy the Execution of his Majeſty's Intentions declared by the Ordonnance of the Month of May laſt; in order to the inflicting ſuch Puniſhments as the Nature of the Caſe requires. The ſaid Court ordains, that the preſent Arrêt ſhall be read, publiſh'd, and ſet up in all Places where needfull, to the End that no Body may plead Ignorance. Done in the Court of the Mint the 9th of December, 1718.

Signed Guendré.

London, December 10.

Late laſt Night arriv'd three Mails from Holland.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated Dec. 9.

Vienna, Nov. 26. We hear from Italy, that the Imperial Regiments arrive daily in Sicily; and that the Damage they ſuffer'd by the late Storm was inconſiderable. 'Tis reported that inſtead of the Troops which the King of France was according to the Quadruple Alliance to furniſh to the Emperour againſt Spain, his Majeſty will pay to the Emperour 80000 Crowns per Month, to begin from the 2d Inſtant.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 16.

Vienna, Dec. 3. By Letters from Naples, we hear, that we have taken a Frigate of Meſſina, with Letters from the Marquis de Lede to Cardinal Acquaviva at Rome; this Ship being ſo ſuddenly ſurpriz'd in the Night by a Tartane of Reggio, that they had not Time to throw the Packet over board. The ſaid Marquis, in theſe Letters, earneſtly intreats the Cardinal to write to Madrid, to preſs that Court to ſend him without Delay, Succours of Troops, Money, Ammunition and Proviſion, without which, the Spaniſh Army cannot ſubſiſt above ſix or eight Weeks at fartheſt. Yeſterday arrived the Marquis Stella from Naples, and ſoon after an Expreſs who ſet out a few Days after him; by whom we have Advice, that the Savoy Troops have entirely given up to the Imperialiſts, Syracuſa, and all the other Places which they held in Sicily; which was done by expreſs Order from the Court of Turin, ſent away as ſoon as that Prince enter'd into the Quadruple Alliance. 'Tis ſaid with great Aſſurance, that the Princeſs Sobieski has, with the Conſent of the Pope, broke off her Marriage Contract with the Pretender.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated Dec. 16.

Vienna, Dec. 3. Sir Robert Sutton, who has reſided at the Ottoman Porte in Quality of Ambaſſadour of the King of Great Britain, and aſſiſted at the Treaty of Paſſarowitz on the part of his Britannick Majeſty as Mediator, departed this Day from hence to return to London. His Imperial Majeſty expreſs'd to him the great Satisfaction he had in the Pains he had taken to bring the Negociations at Paſſarowitz to a happy Concluſion.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated Dec. 13.

Hague, Dec. 11. Baron Heems, who has reſided here many Years in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary of his Imperial Majeſty, died the 7th of this Month. His Body is embalm'd, and will on Tueſday next be ſent from hence to Bruſſels, in order to be buried there.

[The other Advices ſhall be communicated in our next.]
